

Signs of the Resurrection

Luke 24:13-43, 50-51; John 5:28-29; 1 Corinthians 15:13-19, 42-44, 50-53; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Why is it (or is it?) important to your Christian faith to believe that Jesus' dead body was raised from the dead?

Is it possible to be a Christian and only believe that Jesus' spirit and soul rose from the dead?

Does the Bible teach that just as Jesus is now so shall we be someday?

Is it true to say that God does not care about our bodies because they are not spiritual?

Is it true that Christians in heaven are at peace, no longer experiencing the pain and suffering that we still experience in our bodies?

On the day of God's Judgment, will God judge people or disembodied spirits?

Are the bodies of dead sinners also resurrected someday?

Should we be sharing this truth with people or doesn't it matter?

Do you think that if people knew they would one day be given an immortal body, that they might be more concerned about where they would spend eternity?

Food for Thought: Jesus' resurrected body could walk, talk, sit, eat, build a fire, cook... all very normal things.
