

Earth Day

Genesis 1:1, 26, 31, 3:17, 8:20-22; John 1:1-3, 3:16-17;
Matthew 6:28-30, 10:29; Hebrews 1:1-2; Romans 8:19-22;
2 Peter 3:13; Revelation 21:1

Often times, Christians fail to consider the importance of the Earth to God and His Plans. Have we allowed ecologists and scientists to usurp our place as the God-given caretakers of the planet. The news is filled with issues such as global climate change, the extinction of species, and the destruction of the rainforests. As Christians, how are we to feel about the Earth? To answer that, we first need to know how God feels about the Earth?

God _____ the Earth.

God _____ of the Earth.

God _____ the Earth to _____.

God _____ the Earth.

God _____ for the Earth.

God _____ for the Earth.

Given all of this... what should our attitude be toward the Earth? Is it merely a place to live while we determine our eternal destiny?

What does God's Word say is our responsibility to the Him for the Earth?

What is the best thing that humans can do for their planet?
